

THE STAR'S DAILY PICTORIAL PAGE

THE EVENING STAR, WASHINGTON, D. C., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1922.

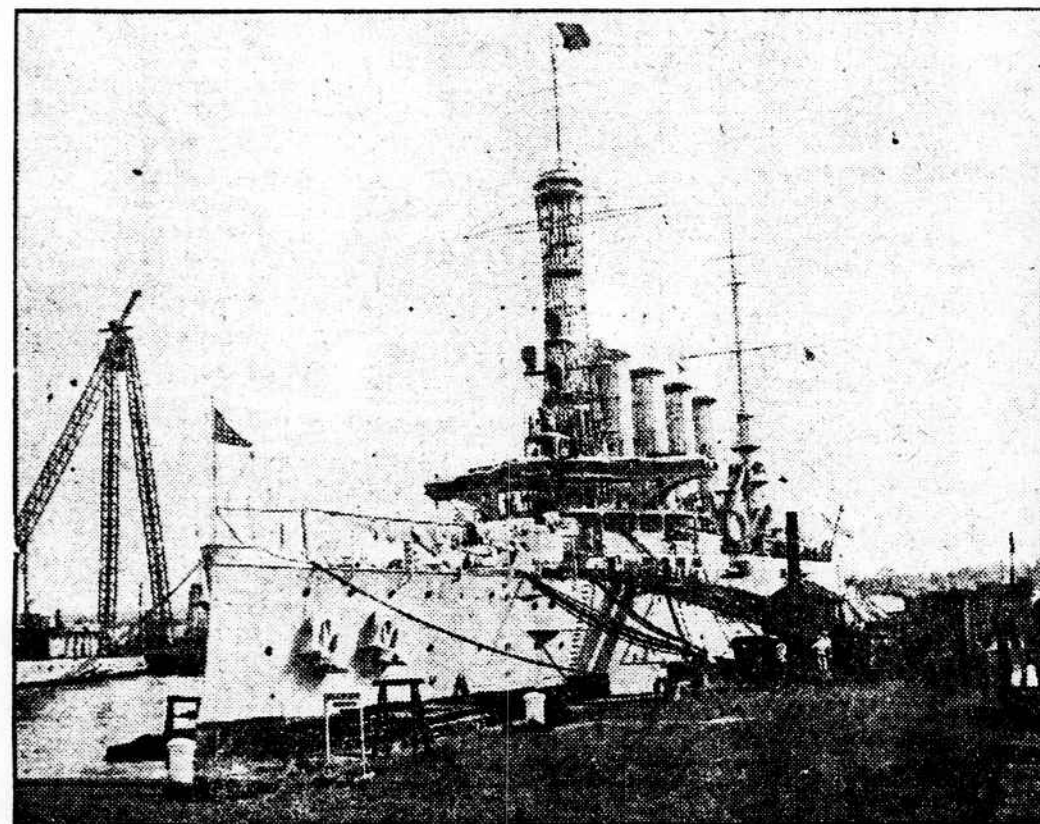

Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes return from Rio de Janeiro, where they attended opening of the Brazilian centenary exposition. Photo taken after they landed from the U. S. S. Maryland in New York. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

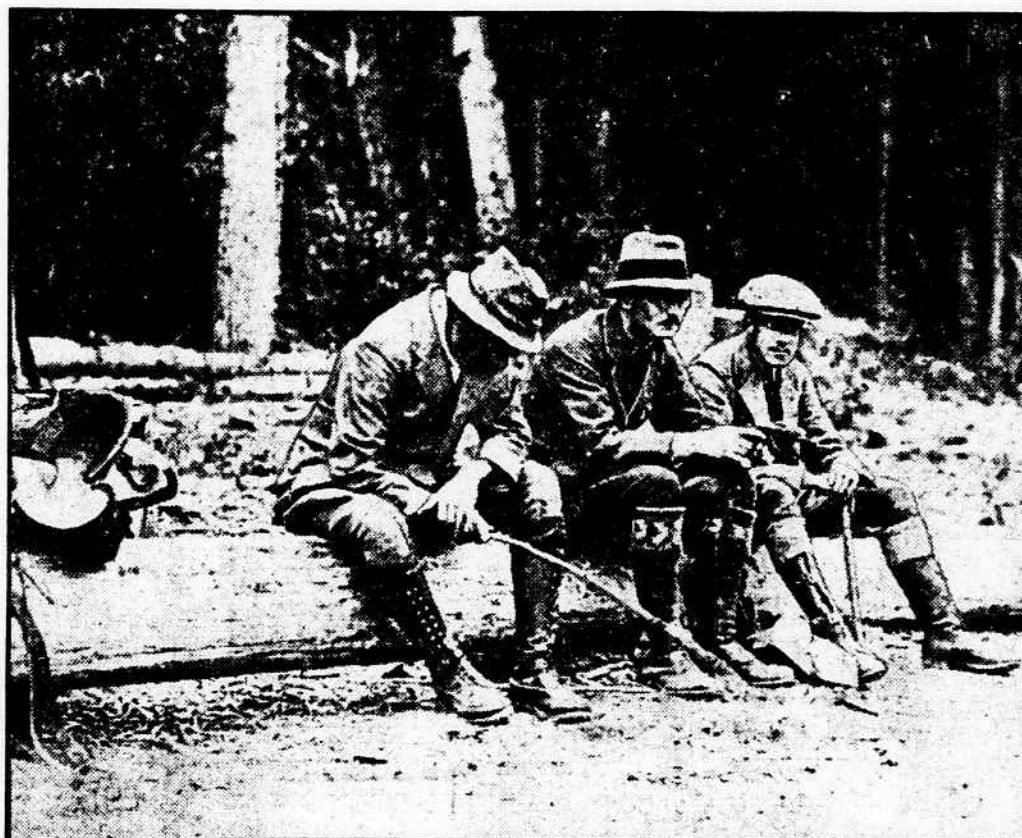

Turkish cavalry on the march. These troops, under Mustapha Kemal Pasha, have been driving the Greeks before them, but there has been quiet in the war zone during a discussion of peace terms. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

Mrs. Maria Kousnozzoff, Russian actress, arrives in America, bringing thirty Russian singers. The funds received from the entertainments will be used in aiding Russian actors and actresses in Petrograd and other cities of that country. Wide World Photo.

Rush work on United States cruiser Pittsburgh for her dash to the Levant to assist in the rescue of Americans in the war area. The cruiser will report to Admiral Mark L. Bristol in Constantinople. Photo taken at League Island navy yard, Philadelphia. Copyright by Keystone.

Baron Byng of Vimy (left) Governor General of Canada, with his wife and another member of the party touring Jasper Park, Alberta. Their trip has included walking trips through all the old trails. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

French nurses in the United States to study hospital management. Miss Jeanne de Joannis (center) directs the Rue Amyot Nursing Home, in Paris, in conjunction with which the American Committee for Devastated France is planning to establish a new training school for nurses. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

Hoot, Mon! He's here again. Sir Harry Lauder and wife arrived in New York yesterday—Sir Harry armed with his smelly pipe and wearing kilts, tilted bonnet, 'n'everything. Copyright by Keystone.

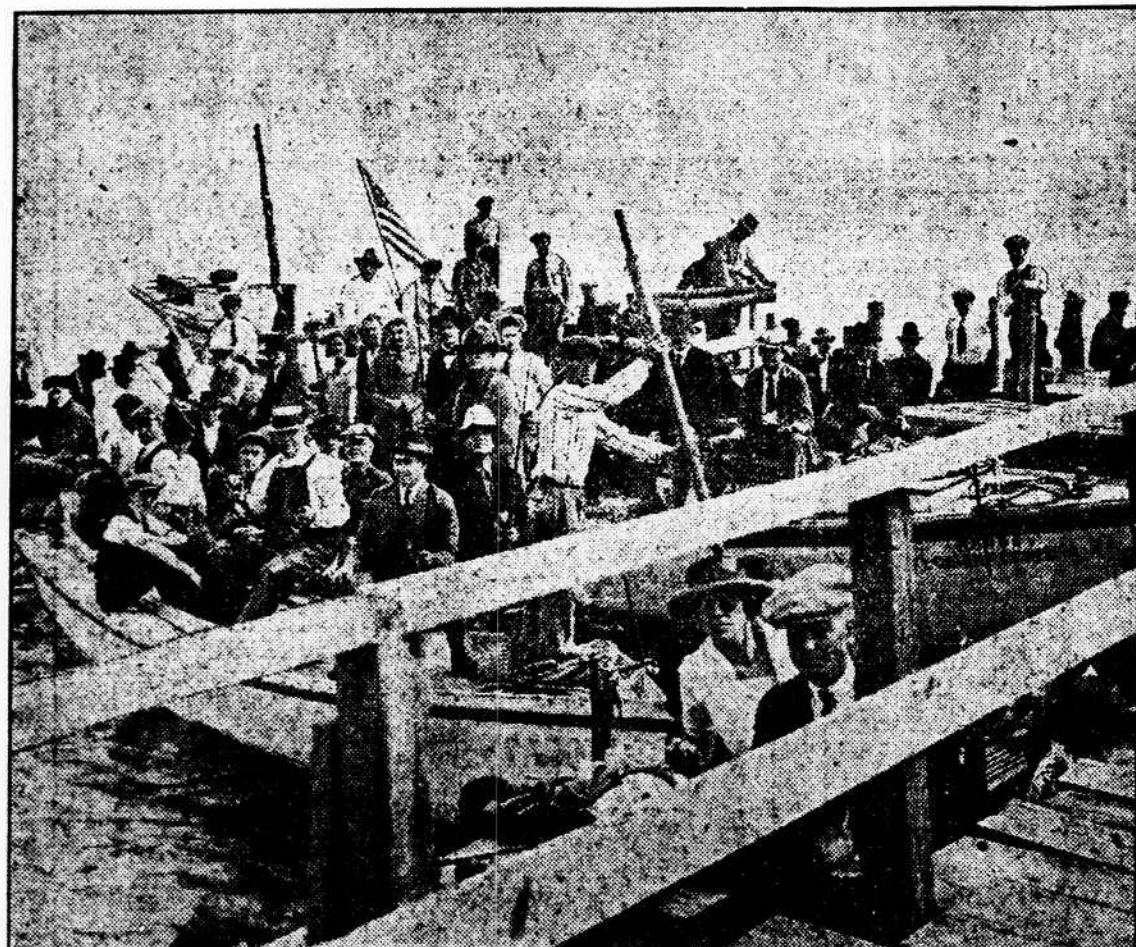

Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, jr., who served as hostess of the Grace Dodge Hotel booth at the women's activities exhibition in New York. She is chairman of the housing committee of the Y. W. C. A. Copyright by Keystone.

Ralph Knapp of 504 Aspen street, Takoma Park, who sailed last week for Turkey, where he will represent the Near East Relief. He is a graduate of Cornell and was in the chemical warfare service. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

Telling 'em what he thinks of prohibition. He is John W. Glenister, organizer of the People's Voice League, which seeks a modification of the prohibition law. Glenister returned from England yesterday. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

Washington anglers held their annual outing at Chesapeake Beach yesterday. Many fine catches were reported, and the local fishermen upheld their reputations as the best anglers in the east. Photo shows start from the pier. Photo by Washington Photo Service.

Booting one for Old Eli. Capt. Jordan, who will lead Yale's gridiron warriors this year. Photo taken Saturday afternoon during practice. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

This Washington lad, the youngest son of D. M. Thomas, can "double" very well for a well known film star, Jackie Coogan. The costume is an exact duplicate of Jackie's. Copyright by 21st Century Press.